The Deciding Factor

Your selection of a bank is naturally influenced by its reputation for safety and conservatism, by the standing which it enjoys in the community.

But, when these qualifications are met, the courteous and friendly helpfulness of its service becomes the deciding factor.

In The Farmers National Bank of Appomattox you find recognized safety and conservatism in policy and practice—and you also find that atmosphere of cordial welcome, and that satisfying personal attention which make your contact with the bank most truly satisfying.

THE LONG ARM OF THE NATION

The strength of every nation is measured by its sea power. In war the navy is the deciding factor. In peace it is the most powerful insurance against future war. Little-known facts of intense interest concerning our navy are told in one of the series of stories about Our Government which we are sending out each month.

Yesterday the Tobacco Growers Association had its opening day at Appomattox and its warehouse handled 30,000 pounds of the weed. The ware house force seemed to handle things in an orderly way and everyone appeared to be satisfied with the first days work. We interviewed the members present and compared their grading and prices and all announced that it was satisfactory in a high degree and a decided improvement over the auction manner of selling. There was some damaged tobacco brought in, which had been down too long, but the most of it was of good quailty. John Poe was among the farmers classed as A A which places a value of $72 per 100 on his grade. There was no hitch of any kind noticed and Appomattox is now prepared to handle all tobacco and guarantee the same price that all other dark markets offer. It is proper to say that the grading of Mr. H. O. Babcock was also satisfactory. There was one load at Moses warehouse. Quite a number of interested farmers joined the association today.

RED CROSS PUTS UP $9,739,872

Year's Budget Stresses Relief and Services at Home and Overseas.

MILLIONS FOR VETERAN AID

Over $3,000,000 Allotted to the Disabled—Foreign Work Lessens.

Washington.—Expenditures totaling $9,739,872.47 for carrying through its program of services and relief during the fiscal year in the United States and overseas are authorized in the budget of the American Red Cross, effective July 1, 1922. This total is $2,735,975 less than the expenditures for the last fiscal year, when disbursements reached $12,475,847.69, it is announced at National Headquarters in a statement emphasizing the necessity of continued support of the organization by enrollment during the annual Roll Call, November 11-November 30 inclusive. This total for the budget is exclusive of the large financial operations of the 3,300 active Red Cross Chapters, which, it is estimated, will more than double the total.

War Veterans Have First Call

First call on Red Cross funds is for the disabled ex-service men, of whom 27,487 were receiving treatment from the Government on June 1 last. This work for veterans and their families in a wide variety of service that the Government is not authorized to render and for which it has neither funds nor facilities has the call on $3,030,692.90 during the current year, or about $366,000 more than was expended last year for soldier service. Adding the funds disbursed in this humanitarian work of physical reconstitution following the World War by the Chapters throughout the country will approximate a total for the current year approaching $10,000,000. This work, in the opinion of the Surgeon General's office, will not reach its peak before 1926.

Through its Chapters the American Red Cross is equipped to find the individual ex-service man, help him in his problems and difficulties, provide immediately for his necessities, and open the way for him to the Government compensation and aid to which he is entitled. The extension of this work to the families of such men proves to them that the Red Cross has lost none of its sympathy nor will to service manifested in wartime. Similarly the service goes out to the men still in the Army and Navy, 11,087 of whom were under treatment in Government hospitals on June 1, 1922.

Greater Domestic Program

This year—after five years of constructive effort during the war and after the armistice—brings with it a greater responsibility for domestic service to the American Red Cross. The budget for foreign operations, however, totals $3,404,000, but of this amount $1,834,000 is for medical relief and hospital supplies for Russia, which is a part of the gift made by the American Red Cross in 1921 to the Russian famine relief work of the American Relief Administration program. The child health service in Europe continues, moreover, and $654,000 is appropriated for this work undertaken in 1920. Other items in the stringently diminished foreign program include $200,000 to support the League of Red Cross Societies, $22,000 for nurses' training schools instituted by the Red Cross abroad, and $600,000 for liquidation of the general Red Cross foreign relief program.

Prepared for Emergencies

For disaster relief the Red Cross has set aside $750,000, and for emergencies in Chapter work $500,000 to be available for domestic, insular and foreign demands. This is more than $385,000 above last year's expenditures. For service and assistance to the 3,300 Chapters and their branches $1,230,000 is provided by the National organization.

Other budget items of importance in the domestic program include $200,000 for assistance to other organizations and education institutions for training Red Cross nurses and workers; $150,000 for Roll Call assistance furnished to Chapters; $100,000 for unforeseen contingencies.

Of the total budget less than $500,000 is allotted for management in the National organization. No cash estimate, of course, is possible to weigh the value of the service by volunteers in the Chapters.

Miss Edna Megginson has been very much under the weather and we are glad to note she is better at this writing.

Dunkley Harvey son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harvey continues ill, but we hope soon to hear of his recovery.

Mr. Burr Abbitt, of Newport News, has been visiting relatives here.

Mr. Bob Megginson, who has been quite ill is out again

Mr. Tom Harvey is on the sick list.

Halloween passed off very quietly in this neighborhood. Mr. Will Acres, of Gladstone, who came over here to hunt (bear I suppose) frightened his friends by appearing on the scene as a sure enough "spook".

The hunting season is open "good fashion" and the "festive" turkey is living hard.

Mr. James Scott, of Lynchburg, who is visiting the family of Mr. Sam Megginson killed a turkey very much to his surprise.

Mrs. C. J. App and Mr. C Gibb Anderson, of Lydchburg, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs H. W. Kinney.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A Steffans, of Norfolk, spent the week end with the latters parents, Mr and Mrs H. W. Kinney. They were accompanied by Mrs. Steffans' sister, Mrs. H. B. Foster, on their return home.

Dr. Christian and family who have been visiting in Richmond have returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Megginson spent Halloween with the latters parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, at Andersonville.

Mr. Thomas Megginson is giving his house a new coat of grey paint, which very much enhances its appearance.

The Community League met at Liberty Chapel high school Friday. The club girls served delicious refreshments.

How thankful we should be when we read of the terrible tornadoes and blizzards they are having out West, that we are living in old Virginia, the land of sunshine and flowers. We hope it will not be long, before the "Restitution of all things" when the "desert shall bloom as the rose" and the earth, which is God's footstool shall be made glorious To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning; the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness Isa. 61-3

"Just where you stand in the conflict
There is your place!
Just where you think you are useless
Hide not your face
God placed you there for a purpose
Whate'er it be
Think he has chosen you for it
Work loyally
Gird on your armor, be faithful
At toil or at rest
Which ever it be, never doubting
God's way is best
Out in the fight, or on picket
Stand firm and true;
This is the work which your Master
Give you to do."

"Strong and Well"

"I WISH you could know how much I am improved since taking the Cardui," writes Mrs. Nannie Brown, of Black Rock, Ark. "You wouldn't know me for the same weak invalid I was before I took it. At my . . . I had to keep off my feet or I would fall. I couldn't do my housework, and just got where I'd most as lief be dead as living. Some one told my husband of Cardui. He got it for me and I took three bottles before I stopped—then off and on for the last three years just as a tonic. I saw a decided improvement after my first bottle. I used the three, and was able to do my work with ease, and now I sew for my family and for others. I am feeling fine, and strong and well."
